A MESSAGE FROM THE DIRECTOR OF THE SCHOOL OF MUSIC

As director of the School of Music at University of Puget Sound, I am delighted to welcome you to this concert by the Wind Ensemble. Music has helped define the uniqueness and distinction of Puget Sound since 1893, and the Wind Ensemble has been central to bringing recognition and renown to our program. It is one of the foundations of a music program that offers multiple degrees in music, a music minor, open ensemble auditions for all university students, and lessons by specialists on all standard instruments and voices. To learn more about us, talk with our students, visit us on the Web at www.pugetsound.edu/music, or come to our Tacoma campus for a tour!

It is both a pleasure and an honor to perform for you. Welcome and enjoy.

Keith Ward
Director, School of Music

THE SCHOOL OF MUSIC

The School of Music at University of Puget Sound is unique in offering a comprehensive music program within a nationally recognized liberal arts college. Its accomplished faculty is committed to guiding students toward outstanding achievements in performance, scholarship, and teaching. The rigorous curriculum and extensive performance opportunities prepare students for a diverse range of careers and provide all students opportunities to pursue music study. Through a wide variety of colloquia, workshops, performances, and a vibrant Community Music Department, the School of Music enriches the cultural life of both the Puget Sound campus and the surrounding community.

UNIVERSITY OF PUGET SOUND

At University of Puget Sound education is an invitation to express yourself. Our liberal arts curriculum is grounded in the fundamental skills of critical thinking, clear-headed discussion, and convincing writing. To develop substantive ideas, you will explore different approaches to knowledge, make connections among them, and focus on a major area of study. Because we are a close, residential college, you will have ample opportunities outside of class to share and debate your ideas with faculty members and other students. According to your interests, you will be able to express yourself through involvement in athletics, the arts, campus issues, and community service, continually inspired by the dynamic culture and natural beauty of the Pacific Northwest.
