This form is not an official graduation analysis.

A minimum grade of C- is required for a course in the major. At least five units of the major must be completed in residence at Puget Sound. The department advises students who plan to do graduate work in European, Asian, or Latin American history to take at least two years of an appropriate foreign language.

*First year seminars do not count toward the major. The following courses from Classics, up to a limit of two units, can count toward the major in History: CLSC 211, 212, 305, 308, 390. Classics courses will be considered part of the European area of emphasis. History 323 may count in either the European or the Asian area.
