A MESSAGE FROM THE DIRECTOR OF THE SCHOOL OF MUSIC

As director of the School of Music at University of Puget Sound, I am delighted to welcome you to this concert by our Wind Ensemble. Music has helped define the uniqueness and distinction of Puget Sound since 1893, and for the past few decades the Wind Ensemble has been part of that tradition through frequent annual performances on campus and regional tours. The ensemble is one of the foundations of a music program that offers multiple degrees in music, a music minor, open ensemble auditions for all university students, and lessons by specialists on all standard instruments and voice. To learn more about us, talk with our students, quiz Dr. Morris, visit us on the Web at pugetsound.edu/music, or come to our Tacoma campus for a tour!

It is both a pleasure and an honor to perform for you. Welcome and enjoy.

THE SCHOOL OF MUSIC

The School of Music at University of Puget Sound is unique in offering a comprehensive music program within a nationally recognized liberal arts college. Its accomplished faculty is committed to guiding students toward outstanding achievements in performance, scholarship, and teaching. The rigorous curriculum and extensive performance opportunities prepare students for a diverse range of careers and provide all students opportunities to pursue music study. Through a wide variety of colloquia, workshops, performances, and a vibrant Community Music Department, the School of Music enriches the cultural life of both the Puget Sound campus and the surrounding community.

UNIVERSITY OF PUGET SOUND

University of Puget Sound is a highly selective liberal arts college in the Pacific Northwest. It’s a place where people come together — to learn, to make lasting connections, to plunge into a sea of ideas, and to begin to scale the challenges of the world ahead. An intellectual atmosphere, an energized academic community, a beautiful campus in a vibrant city, and a depth of opportunities to reach out, connect, and explore.

CONDUCTOR

GERARD MORRIS, assistant professor, completed his Doctor of Music degree in conducting from Northwestern University, and earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in music from Western Michigan University and a Master of Music Education degree from University of Colorado at Boulder. His primary conducting teachers include Allan McMurray, University of Colorado, and Mallory Thompson, Northwestern University.

As a member of the Puget Sound School of Music faculty, Dr. Morris serves as Wind and Percussion Department Chair and conducts the Wind Ensemble, Concert Band, and both the Opera and Musical orchestras. In addition he teaches courses in conducting, music education, and serves as a coach for student chamber ensembles performing wind repertory. As a professional conductor, Dr. Morris has appeared at Midwest Clinic, Colorado Music Festival at Chautauqua, and Steamboat Strings Music in the Mountains Summer Music Festival. He has conducted Boulder Brass, Illinois Brass Band, Chicago’s Sonic Inertia Performance Group, and Northwestern University’s Symphonic Wind Ensemble, Symphonic Band, Contemporary Music Ensemble, Brass Ensemble, and Saxophone Ensemble. In the summer of 2009 he was a clinician for Northwestern University Conducting and Wind Music Symposium, and in 2011 was invited guest lecturer at University of North Carolina at Greensboro New Music Festival. In Oct. of 2013 Dr. Morris was a guest artist in residence at Iowa State University.

DEDICATED TO PUBLIC SCHOOL MUSIC EDUCATION, Dr. Morris has extensive experience teaching both junior and senior high school in Michigan and Colorado. His success has earned him invitations to appear as a guest conductor and clinician for numerous public schools, honor ensembles, and festivals throughout Virginia, Georgia, Michigan, Hawaii, North Carolina, Colorado, Illinois, Washington, and Canada. In service to his passion as a conductor and teacher, Dr. Morris hosts the Puget Sound Conducting Symposium, an annual four-day workshop bringing together public school music teachers to hone conducting technique, deepen pedagogical knowledge, and strengthen professional relationships. In addition he currently serves as conductor of the Puget Sound Youth Wind Ensemble (PSYWE). With this organization Dr. Morris has co-developed the PSYWE Teacher’s Workshop, a one-day workshop designed specifically for area directors whose students perform with this elite ensemble.

Dr. Morris’ conducting and teaching are informed by years of professional performing experience as principal euphonium with Boulder Brass and United States Marine Corps Band, Hawaii. With these organizations he toured the United States, Australia, and Costa Rica as both an ensemble member and soloist.
