

Student Affairs can assist you with co-curricular programs!

Reserving Venues:

To reserve the following residence hall spaces for presentations or discussions that involve a student audience, contact Residence Life Staff, reslife@pugetsound.edu, x3317:

- Seward First Floor Lounge (seats 25, not enclosed); Seward Third Floor Lounge (seats 15, is enclosed)
- Todd/Phibbs First Floor Lounge (seats 20)
- University Lounge (seats 30, not enclosed)
- Anderson/Langdon First Floor Lounge (seats 20 - 40 people, is enclosed)
- Schiff First Floor Lounge (seats 15, is enclosed)

External residence hall doors are locked at all times. Security Services can provide access to the faculty member who has made space arrangements. Please have a student in your course/program provide "door duty," to give access to others, so that residence hall staff does not become a doorperson for your event.
