

2016-2017 National Residence Hall Honorary Application

What is NRHH?

The National Residence Hall Honorary (NRHH) is a service of the National Association of College and University Residence Halls, Inc. (NACURH). NRHH exists to recognize those students who have committed personal time and effort to make their college experiences more meaningful by participating in on-campus living related activities. NRHH is comprised of the top one percent (1%) of the total on-campus residence hall and apartment population from across the United States. Members are selected for membership based on service to the residence halls or campus community, strong character, and leadership potential.

Minimum Qualifications:

1. Have resided in the University of Puget Sound residence halls or apartments for at least one semester prior to the semester of selection.
2. Reside in the University of Puget Sound Residence Halls or on campus houses during the semester of selection and during the semester following acceptance.
3. Have completed a minimum of one semester of credits (4), be a student in good standing with the University, and shall have a minimum of a 2.75 cumulative grade point average.
4. Have demonstrated outstanding service and leadership in the residence halls, houses or campus community at the University of Puget Sound.
