EVERY WEEK

► Virtual career advising available | M—F, 8:30 a.m.—4:30 p.m. PDT

► Reception hours | M—F, 8:30 a.m.—4:30 p.m. PDT
Call 253.879.3161 (leave a message) or write to ces@pugetsound.edu.

TUESDAY, JULY 28

► Peace Corps for Introverts: A panel of introverts share challenging, rewarding and inspirational moments from their Peace Corps experience. Ask questions and gain tips about the application process. | Noon PDT via Handshake.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 29

► STEM Recruiting: Oak Ridge Institute for Science and Education (ORISE) is hosting a recruitment fair to highlight the variety of paid internships, fellowships, and research associate appointments available. | 9 a.m.—Noon PDT via Handshake.

 ► ASK a Logger | Career Q&A with Ian Fox ‘14: Interested in public radio? Ian is a radio journalism professional currently serving as project manager for PRX in Boston, MA. Ian has also spent time in event production and writing for NPR, Minnesota Public Radio, and the Pew Charitable Trusts. | 3 p.m. PDT via Handshake ~Can’t attend live? Send your questions to ces@pugetsound.edu. Then watch for a recording of the event to be posted at PugetSound.edu/ASKaLogger.

THURSDAY, JULY 30

► Finances 101: Northwestern Mutual’s workshop can help you make smart financial decisions as a college student and beyond. | 2 p.m. PDT via Handshake.

DETAILS: PUGETSOUND JOINHANDSHAKE.COM