

Hey!

By this time, I should of met you all a few times, but for the sake of saying it again I am Connor King your Peer Advisor. Hope your first weeks are coming along nicely. I am excited to get to know you all little bit better and help you with anything that may come up.

I am from a small town in Colorado most famous for Dog the Bounty Hunter and Teen Mom. I am currently working towards an Economics degree. When I am not doing school, I am most likely swimming, wanting to ski, or playing with friends. I am also involved in Investment Club, Greek Life, and UPS's swim team. If you are interested in studying abroad I also studied in Japan last fall so I would love to talk to you about that.

If you ever need anything help with the following I would love to meet up and talk about it;

- Figuring out how to graduate
- Getting a tutor
- Learning how to swim
- Finding good food at the sub
- Navigating campus resources
- Studying abroad
- Understanding why the Denver Broncos are the best team in the NFL

But actually, please reach out if you ever need anything, college is hard and I can help. You can find me every week in my office hours on Monday in Diversions Café, from 1-2 p.m., or on Tuesday in Howarth Hall 114E from 2-3 p.m. Or you can set up a time to meet with me. You should have my contact by now but if not my phone and email are below.

See you around,

Connor King
