FELLOWSHIPS

Fulbright Scholarships
Teaching Assistant Scholarship to Ecuador .................. Hannah Findling (Alternate)
Teaching Assistant Scholarship to Germany .............. Alexander Furlow (Alternate)
The U.S. student program is designed to give recent B.S./B.A. graduates and master's and doctoral candidates opportunities for personal development and international experience. Students teach English as a second language in high schools and participate in various community and cultural activities. Projects and/or activities may include university coursework, independent library or field research, classes in a music conservatory or art school, special projects in the social or life sciences, or a combination.

French Government Teaching Assistantship .................................Moira Fagan
Chesna Foord
Kirstin Howley
Amy Nichols
Benjamin LaBouve (Waitlisted)
The French Government Teaching Assistantships are competitive and prestigious awards granted by the French Government. Students receiving these Assistantships teach English abroad in the French school system for one academic year.
The Watson Fellowship enables college graduates of unusual promise to engage in an initial postgraduate year of independent study and travel abroad. This opportunity provides for a focused and disciplined Wanderjahr of the graduate’s own design. The fellowship provides a grant of $25,000 to each recipient.

Princeton-in-Asia Fellowship provides transformative, service-oriented experiences for talented graduates and serves the needs of Asia as determined by our Asian partners. Over the last century, the organization has achieved this goal by providing talented young people with various opportunities to live and work in Asia. The first PiA “fellowships” consisted of a handful of Princeton University graduates who went to China in the late 1890s to do relief work and teach English; the program has since expanded considerably in size and scope throughout Asia. In 2010 PiA placed 165 fellows in 18 countries, including Cambodia, China/Hong Kong, Timor-Leste, India, Indonesia, Japan, Kazakhstan, Korea, Laos, Mongolia, Malaysia, Nepal, Philippines, Singapore, Taiwan, Thailand, and Vietnam. Currently the program offers primarily teaching fellowships with additional fellowships in the fields of journalism, international development, and business.

The Morris K. Udall Scholarship was founded in 1992 to honor Congressman Udall and his legacy of public service. Congressman Udall had a lasting impact on our nation’s environment, public lands, and natural resources, and he also championed the rights of Native Americans and Alaska natives and strengthened their ability for tribal self-governance. Typical majors or areas of studies in which Udall Scholars are involved include environmental engineering, the natural sciences, natural resource management, the social sciences, and Native American public policy.

The Barry M. Goldwater Scholarship was established by Congress in 1986 to honor Senator Barry M. Goldwater, who served his country for 56 years as a soldier and statesman, including 30 years of service in the U.S. Senate. The scholarship program was designed to foster and encourage outstanding students to pursue careers in the fields of mathematics, the natural sciences, and engineering. The Goldwater Scholarship is the premier undergraduate award of its type in these fields.

Boren Scholarships are funded by the National Security Education Program (NSEP), which focuses on geographic areas, languages, and fields of study deemed critical to U.S. national security. The scholarships provide up to $20,000 to U.S. undergraduate students to study abroad in areas of the world that are critical to U.S. interests and underrepresented in study abroad, including Africa, Asia, Central and Eastern Europe, Eurasia, Latin America, and the Middle East. Boren Scholarships promote long-term linguistic and cultural immersion recognizing that the scope of national security has expanded to include not only the traditional concerns of protecting and promoting American well-being, but also the challenges of global society, including: sustainable development, environmental degradation, global disease and hunger, population growth and migration, and economic competitiveness.

Arabic Critical Language Scholarship ..............................Madeline Waddell – Morocco

A program of the U.S. Department of State, Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs, the Critical Language Scholarship (CLS) Program offers intensive summer language institutes in 13 critical foreign languages. The selection process is administered by American Councils for International Education with awards approved by the U.S. Department of State, Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs. The CLS Program is part of a U.S. government effort to expand dramatically the number of Americans studying and mastering critical foreign languages. Students of diverse disciplines and majors are encouraged to apply. Participants are expected to continue their language study beyond the scholarship period, and later apply their critical language skills in their future professional careers.
