

Spring 2018 Indonesian Films

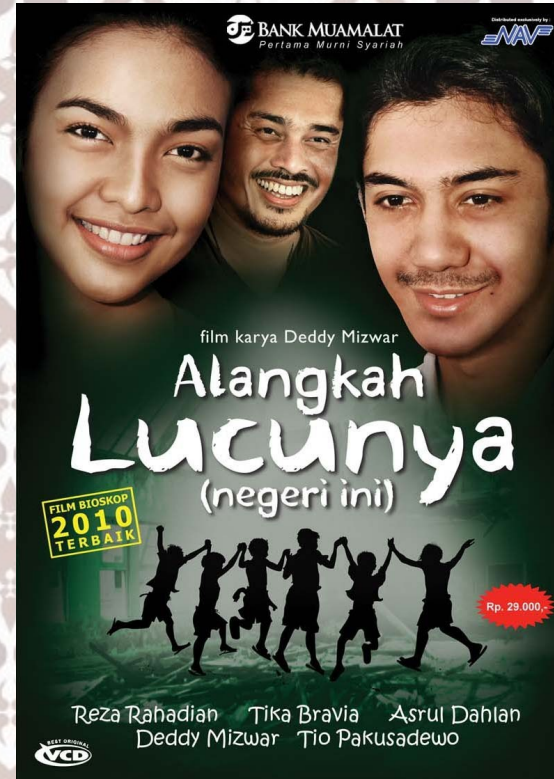

Monday, February 12

6:00 PM—8:00 PM Wyatt 307

Habibie & Ainun

This is the story of the third Indonesian president, Bacharuddin Jusuf Habibie, and his wife, Hasri Ainun Habibie, based off of his memoir also titled Habibie and Ainun. The airplane engineer and doctor duo fall deeply in love with each other, becoming closer with each hardship they overcome.

Monday, March 26

6:00 PM—8:00 PM Wyatt 307

How Funny (This Country Is)

Alangkah Lucunya (negeri ini)

The protagonist, Muluk, attempts to dishonestly make money as an unemployed member of Indonesian society. The movie itself is satiric comedy focused on providing social commentary on Indonesia and its culture. From the country's unemployment problem to the many people living on the streets, the audience will soon realize how serious the situation in Indonesia is.

LUCE INITIATIVE on ASIAN STUDIES and the ENVIRONMENT
SOUTHEAST ASIA
FIELD SCHOOLS • CULTURE • ECOLOGY • LANGUAGES

Sponsored by Asian Studies and the Luce Foundation
Refreshments Provided