Established in 1984 the Jacobsen Series features performances by the School of Music faculty, alumni, and guest artists for the university and the community. The series, which is named in honor of Leonard Jacobsen, professor of piano and chair of the piano department at Puget Sound from 1932 to 1965, consists of theme-related concerts presented between September and April each academic year.

The Jacobsen Series Scholarship Fund awards annual music scholarships to outstanding student performers and scholars. This fund is sustained entirely by season subscribers and individual ticket sales. University of Puget Sound wishes to recognize and thank our many patrons whose support has assisted worthy students and has contributed to this successful series.

2014–15

FACULTY PERFORMERS

A native of Germany, CHRISTINA KOWALSKI has been an affiliate artist faculty member at University of Puget Sound since 2005, and is a newly matriculated doctoral student at University of Washington. She earned her master’s degree in music and drama from the Hochschule für Musik und Kunst in Frankfurt am Main. Ms. Kowalski has appeared in productions of the Frankfurt Opera Studio as the Governess in Turn of the Screw and Parascha in Stravinsky’s Mavra. Ms. Kowalski made her debut in the United States as Marzelline in Beethoven’s Fidelio at the Mark Theater in Portland. Since then she has performed with Portland Opera, Skagit Opera, Washington East Opera, Rogue Opera, Metthow Valley Chamber Music Festival, Seattle and Bellevue Philharmonic orchestras, Seattle Concert Opera, Olympia Symphony, Vancouver Symphony, Vashon Opera, Opera Pacifica, Seattle Opera Guild, and Opera Coeur d’Alene. Her recent performances include Madama Butterfly with Rogue Opera, Lauretta in Gianni Schicci with Vashon Opera, Marguerite in Faust with Opera Pacifica, Rosalinde in Die Fledermaus with Skagit Opera, Isolde’s Liebestod with Olympia Symphony, and the lead role of Semele in collaboration with Maestro Stephen Stubbs, Pacific Music Works, and University of Washington.

JENNIFER NELSON, affiliate faculty artist, clarinet, is currently principal clarinet with Pacific Northwest Ballet and Auburn Symphony orchestras. She has a very active freelance career, including playing Broadway-style shows at the 5th Avenue and Paramount theaters, serving as an extra with Seattle Symphony and Opera orchestras, and recording for various television and film scores. She is an artist in residence, in clarinet, at University of Washington, in addition to maintaining a very busy private teaching studio in her home in north Seattle. Ms. Nelson has traveled throughout the United States with the national touring companies of Phantom of the Opera and New York City Opera. In addition to her stateside concerts, orchestral and recital performances have taken her to Mexico, Japan, Germany, Liechtenstein, Austria, Honduras, and India.

KEITH WARD, director of the School of Music, earned his Bachelor of Music degree in piano performance from West Chester University in Pennsylvania, and both his Master of Music degree in piano performance/pedagogy and Doctor of Music degree in piano performance from Northwestern University. He performs frequently in University of Puget Sound Jacobsen Series concerts and has appeared in regional concert series and on KING-FM. His scholarly work has focused on the music of Arnold Schoenberg and Charles Ives, musical responses to the AIDS pandemic, and 18th- and 19th-century American piano music. Dr. Ward has been active as a writer, reviewer, panelist, and workshop facilitator in academic leadership for the College Music Society and the National Association of Schools of Music. In 2014 he was named a University of Puget Sound Distinguished Professor.
TEXT AND TRANSLATIONS

Rückert Lieder ................................................................. Mahler

Blicke mir nicht in die Lieder!

Blicke mir nicht in die Lieder!
Meine Augen schlag’ ich nieder,
Wie ertappt auf böser Tat;
Selber darf ich nicht getrauen,
Ihrem Wachsen zuzuschauen:
Deine Neugier ist Verrath.

Bienen, wenn sie Zellen bauen,
Lassen auch nicht zu sich schauen,
Schauen selber auch nicht zu.
Wann die reichen Honigwaben
Sie zu Tag gefördert haben,
Dann vor allen nasche du!

Look not into my songs!

Look not into my songs!
My eyes I lower,
as if I’ve been caught in an evil deed;
I can’t even trust myself,
to watch them grow:
Your curiosity is a betrayal.

Bees, when they build their cells,
also do not let anyone observe them,
even themselves.
When the rich honeycombs
are brought out to the light of day,
then you shall taste them before
everyone else!

Ich atmet’ einen linden Duft!

Ich atmet’ einen linden Duft!
Im Zimmer stand
Ein Zweig der Linde,
Ein Angebinde
Von lieber Hand.
Wie lieblich war der Lindenduft!

Wie lieblich ist der Lindenduft!
Das Lindenreis
Brachst du gelinde!
Ich atme leis
Im Duft der Linde
Der Liebe linden Duft.

I breathed a gentle fragrance!

I breathed a gentle fragrance!
In the room stood
a sprig of linden,
a gift
from a dear hand.
How lovely was the fragrance of linden!

How lovely was the fragrance of linden!
That twig of linden
you broke off so gently!
Softly I breathe in the fragrance of linden
the gentle fragrance of love.

Ich bin der Welt abhanden gekommen

I am lost to the world

Ich bin der Welt abhanden gekommen, with which I used to waste so much time,
Mit der ich sonst viele Zeit verdorben,
Sie hat so lange von mir nichts vernommen, that it may very well believe that I am dead.
Sie mag wohl glauben, ich sei gestorben.
Es ist mir auch gar nichts daran gelegen, It is of no consequence to me,
Ob sie mich für gestorben hält, Whether it thinks me dead,
Ich kann auch gar nichts sagen dagegen, I cannot deny it,
Denn wirklich bin ich gestorben der Welt. for I really am dead to the world.

Ich bin gestorben dem Weltgewimmel
Und ruh’ in einem stillen Gebiet.
Ich leb’ allein in mir und meinem Himmel,
In meinem Lieben, in meinem Lied.

I am dead to the world’s tumult
And I rest in a quiet realm.
I live alone in my heaven,
In my love and in my song.

Liebst du um Schönheit

If you love for beauty

Liebst du um Schönheit, If you love for beauty,
O nicht mich liebe! Oh, do not love me!
 Liebe die Sonne,
Sie trägt ein gold’nes Haar! Love the sun, She has golden hair!

Liebst du um Jugend, If you love for youth,
O nicht mich liebe! Oh, do not love me!
 Liebe den Frühling,
Der jung ist jedes Jahr! Love the spring, Which every year is young!

Liebst du um Schätze, If you love for treasures,
O nicht mich liebe. Oh, do not love me.
 Liebe die Meerfrau,
Die hat viel Perlen klar. Love the mermaid, She has many clear pearls.

Liebst du um Liebe, If you love for love,
O ja, mich liebe! Oh yes, love me!
 Liebe mich immer,
Dich lieb’ ich immer, immerdar. Love me always, You I will love always, forever.
Um Mitternacht
At midnight

I awoke and gazed up to heaven; No star in the entire mass did smile down at me at midnight.

I projected my thoughts out past the dark barriers. No thought of light brought me comfort at midnight.

I paid close attention to the beating of my heart; One single pulse of agony flared up at midnight.

I fought the battle, O Mankind, of your suffering; I could not decide it with my strength at midnight.

I surrendered my strength into your hands! Lord! Over death and life You keep watch at midnight!
