

Jordan O'Hanlon

Welcome to UPS! My name is Jordan O'Hanlon, and as you probably already know, I am your Peer Advisor for the 2018-2019 Academic Year! I hope you all have had a great week at orientation and are feeling ready to start classes.

A little bit more about me - I am from Eugene, Oregon and love calling the PNW home! I am majoring in International Political Economy and am minoring in Global Development Studies and Business. On campus, I am on the swim team and am also involved in RDG and Greek Life. I also studied abroad my junior year on a Public Health program that traveled to D.C., India, South Africa, and Brazil (come talk to me if you're interested in public health or study abroad!). In my free time I love hiking, playing tennis, eating food, and hanging out around Tacoma with friends!

As your Peer Advisor, I am here to work alongside your Faculty Advisor and help as you transition into college academics. I am a resource who will be here to help you pick classes, explore majors, as well as listen to concerns and connect you with other resources on campus. I am also happy to talk to you about anything, so don't hesitate to reach out if you just want to grab coffee and chat! I will be sending out weekly emails, holding office hours, and checking in each month to see how your classes are going. My office hours will be Mondays 11 a.m. - noon in Howarth 114 and Tuesday 2-3 p.m. in Diversions Café. You can also text, call or email me, and we can set up another time to meet! My phone number is 541-520-0468, and my email is johanlon@pugetsound.edu.

I can't wait to get to know all of you better and work with you this year!

- Jordan
