POST-SURVEY

Please answer the following with the best possible answer. If you don’t know the answer, please leave it blank or write, “I don’t know.”

1. How old does something have to be in order to be considered a fossil?
   a. One hundred years
   b. One thousand years
   c. Ten thousand years
   d. One million years
   e. One billion years

2. What kinds of objects can be fossilized?
   a. Bones
   b. Flowers
   c. Leaves
   d. Bacteria
   e. All of the above

3. What is a fossil?

____________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________

4. What do you think a “toothed” leaf is?
   a. A leaf that feels bumpy
   b. A leaf that has spiked edges
   c. A leaf that is hairy
   d. A leaf that traps insects with its teeth

5. What do you think the temperature of Washington was like 110 million years ago?
   a. Warmer
   b. Colder
   c. The same
   d. It’s impossible to know

6. How do you think scientists can figure out the temperature of Washington 110 million years ago?

____________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________
7. After receiving the fossil and climate lessons, will you be more aware of the plants around you?
   YES          NO

8. After receiving the fossil and climate lessons, will you be more aware of the changeable nature of the earth?
   YES          NO

9. After receiving the fossil and climate lessons and learning about the different animals and plants around us, do you think you will be more likely to take better care of nature?
   YES          NO