Spiritual and Religious Life Scholarships and Mentorships
2018-2019 Academic Year

Completed application materials must be submitted to Student Financial Services by March 31, 2018

The Religious Leadership Award program was established to assist students interested in both on-campus and lifelong religious leadership, including both ordained and lay Christian ministry; leadership as a Rabbi, Imam, Monk, Priest, Cantor, or other leader, including non-ordained leadership roles; professional work in faith community music leadership; and a wide range of music, missionary, service, youth, educational, and outreach activities. Some awards are given priority based on spiritual or religious identity, but most are open to all students. These are all one-year awards; however, students who continue with an interest in professional religious careers are encouraged to reapply each year. Students are eligible to receive more than one of these awards.

This application will be used for the following awards:

- Religious Leadership Award: $3,000 – Several awards will be offered to qualified students who have demonstrated spiritual or religious leadership either on campus or in an off-campus community.

- Interfaith Coordinator Mentorship: $5,000-$8,000 – Several recipients will be chosen; Interfaith Coordinators commit to spiritual/religious leadership through the Office of Spiritual Life/Center for Intercultural and Civic Engagement for 3-8 hours per week. Final candidates may be invited to interview with the selection committee.

- Cyrus Ames Wright Scholarship: $2,500-$15,000 – Varying amounts awarded to several students based on their interest in pursuing professional religious or spiritual leadership (rabbi, pastor, cantor, priest, monk, educator, religious camp, church musician, etc.)

- K. James Davis Chaplain’s Award for Spirituality and Social Justice: $1,800 – One award given to a student who has offered leadership to the campus at the intersection of spirituality and social justice.

Name: ___________________________________________________________ UPS ID: ____________

Religious/Spiritual Tradition: ____________________________ If Christian, list Denomination: ______________

(continued on next page)
1. For all scholarships listed above, please write 1-2 paragraph responses to each of the three prompts:

   a. Describe your leadership role(s) or involvement in your local religious or spiritual community, on-campus and/or off-campus.

   b. How are you working to both deepen your own religious or spiritual views and learn about traditions or faiths different than your own?

   c. What are your current plans for future religious/spiritual involvement? (For example: various leadership roles, active participation in a community, graduate education, professional pursuits, solitary practice, music leadership, etc.)

2. Award-specific questions: Beyond the general Religious Leadership Award, Puget Sound offers the following three types of religious leadership scholarships:

   a. Interfaith Coordinator Mentorship
   b. Cyrus Ames Wright Scholarship
   c. K. James Davis Chaplain’s Award for Spirituality and Social Justice

Please follow the instructions below for each of the three types of awards you wish to be considered for. Please respond to the items for that award in a single spaced essay.

Interfaith Coordinator Mentorship 2018-19:

1. Please indicate which types of engagement interest you. You can check one or several options.
   a. ___ Leadership related to underrepresented religious/spiritual communities (Buddhist, Muslim, Baha’i, Sikh, Pagan, and more…)
   b. ___ Leadership related to campus Jewish communities
   c. ___ Leadership related to campus Christian communities
   d. ___ Education related to religious diversity
   e. ___ Connections between religion and social identities (e.g. race, ethnicity, class, gender, sexuality, ability, and more)
   f. ___ Religion and campus life
   g. ___ Professional religious/spiritual leadership
   h. ___ General Interfaith Leadership
   i. ___ Other (please write a paragraph about what you’re interested in!)

2. In 1-2 single-spaced pages, tell us about your interest in the type(s) of interfaith and religious engagement that you’ve noted above. Some POSSIBLE things to consider sharing:
   a. Why does this interest you?
   b. What would you hope to accomplish in focusing on this area?
   c. How would you hope to grow in your own identities and sense of self as an Interfaith Coordinator?
   d. What would you like to see more of on campus in relation to religion and spirituality?

   (continued on next page)
Cyrus Ames Wright Scholarship 2018-19:

1. Students from religious/spiritual traditions that have professional, ordained, or credentialed leadership: please write a 2-3 page, single-spaced essay that describes your sense of call or purpose in pursuing professional religious leadership.

   The essay should address:

   a. What form or forms of professional religious or spiritual leadership are of most interest to you?
   b. How are you working to develop and grow towards this potential calling or vocation?
   c. How do you understand the relationship of your Puget Sound education with your professional vocational interests?

2. Students from religious/spiritual traditions that do not have professional leadership: please write a 2-3 page, single-spaced essay that describes your sense of interest, calling, or commitment to pursue significant long-term religious or spiritual leadership.

   The essay should address:

   a. What significant personal, lay, or volunteer leadership options related to your spiritual/religious tradition are of most interest to you?
   b. How are you working to develop and grow towards that type of significant leadership in your tradition?
   c. How do you understand the relationship of your Puget Sound education with long-term leadership in your religious or spiritual tradition?

K. James Davis Chaplain's Award for Spirituality and Social Justice 2018-2019:

1. Please write a 1-page, single-spaced response to this prompt:

   How do you understand the relationship between spirituality and social justice, and how have you worked to pursue both as a Puget Sound student?

I agree that if I am selected for this scholarship, the university may supply information regarding my academic performance and other information (such as, but not limited to, the information submitted with the application) to the scholarship donor or other individuals or groups involved with the administration of this scholarship.

Signature: ________________________________ Date: ____________________