Good for Students interested in...	Students apply to one core class from among 23 programs. Not all core classes are transferrable to the UPS liberal arts and science degree. DIS offers classes in just about any discipline. Here are just a few... <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Anthropology</li> <li>• Art History</li> <li>• Biology</li> <li>• Business</li> <li>• Communications</li> <li>• Economics</li> <li>• Environmental Studies</li> <li>• Gender Studies</li> <li>• Health Studies</li> <li>• History</li> <li>• International Relations</li> <li>• Political Science</li> <li>• Pre-Law</li> <li>• Psychology</li> <li>• Public Policy</li> <li>• Sociology</li> </ul>

These 'programs' have core classes that aren't transferable (applicable) to our liberal arts/sciences degree:

- Architecture
- Interior Architecture
- Urban Design
- International Business (Two core classes in this program – Business Entrepreneurship Project is fine, but European Business Strategy: Case Studies is not)
- Medical Practice and Policy
