

Name: Elliott Wells

Major: Music Performance (undeclared)

Hometown: Lake Oswego, OR

Instruments: Cello, Voice (Bass)

Musical Involvements: Symphony Orchestra, Chamber music, Adelphians, Garden Level a cappella group

On why I chose Puget Sound: I chose Puget Sound because of the welcoming environment. At Puget Sound, especially in the music program, there's a place for everyone, no matter what level of involvement or experience.

Favorite classes: Ensembles -- Adelphians, Orchestra, Chamber music

Favorite thing about Puget Sound and the School of Music: The amount of opportunities I have to be able to do what I enjoy -- from studying my own instrument and playing in classical ensembles to singing in a cappella groups and working with living composers on their own music.

Favorite musical memory at Puget Sound (so far): Playing in a masterclass with Darrett Adkins, faculty member at Juilliard and Oberlin.

Favorite place on campus: Diversions, I don't hang out there but having coffee 30 seconds from my room is pretty nice.

Looking forward to: Honing my skill and technique, competing in the concerto competition, playing in a flute/cello duo recital, and making new friends within and outside of the music department.
