Herzlich tut mich verlangen (Fervent is My Longing)...........Johann Sebastian Bach
Organ chorale prelude from BWV 727 (1685–1750)

Jesus bleibet meine Freude (Jesus Shall Remain My Joy) Lucien Cailliet, arr.
Final chorus from Cantata No. 147, BWV 147

Liberation.................................................David Maslanka
b. 1943

Libera me, Domine, de morte aeterna, in die illa tremenda:
Quando caeli movendi sunt et terra.
Dum veneris judicare saeculum, per ignem.
Tremens facuts sum ego, et timeo, dum discussion venerit, atque ventura ira.
Quando caeli movendi sunt et terra.
Dies illa, dies irae, calamitatis et miserie, dies magna et amara valde.
Dum veneris judicare saeculum per ignem.
Requiem aeternam dona eis, Domine: et lux perpetua luceat eis.

Deliver me, O Lord, from death eternal on that fearful day,
when the heavens and the earth shall be moved,
when thou shalt come to judge the world by fire.
I am made to tremble, and I fear, till the judgment be upon us, and the coming wrath,
when the heavens and the earth shall be moved.
That day, day of wrath, calamity, and misery, day of great and exceeding bitterness,
when thou shalt come to judge the world by fire.
Rest eternal grant unto them, O Lord: and let light perpetual shine upon them.

GERARD MORRIS, joined University of Puget Sound School of Music faculty in fall 2009 as director of bands and visiting assistant professor of music. In fall 2010 he became an assistant professor. Morris earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in music from Western Michigan University, a Master of Music Education degree from University of Colorado at Boulder, and a Doctor of Music degree in conducting from Northwestern University. His primary conducting teachers include Allan McMurray (University of Colorado) and Mallory Thompson (Northwestern University).

As a member of the Puget Sound faculty, Morris serves as winds and percussion department chair and conducts the Wind Ensemble, Concert Band, and both the opera and musical theatre orchestras. In addition, he teaches courses in conducting and music education, and coaches chamber ensembles performing wind repertory. With passion for new music, Morris has commissioned wind compositions by Michael Colgrass, Carter Pann, Daniel Kellogg, Andrew Ardizzoia, Gregory Youtz, Christopher Stark, and Puget Sound student composers. Under his direction and leadership, the Puget Sound Wind Ensemble has performed world premieres of Das Bach Book (Carter Pann), Glass House Concerto for Percussion and Wind Ensemble (Andrew Ardizzoia), as well as the North American premiere of Argentinian composer Alejandro Rutty’s A Future of Tango.

Morris’s conducting credits include appearances at The Midwest Clinic, Colorado Music Festival at Chautauqua, Steamboat Strings Music in the Mountains Summer Music Festival, University of Georgia JanFest, West Valley Winds Workshop (Alberta, Canada), California Music Educators Association Bay Section Conference, and Washington Music Educators Association State Conference. In addition, he has appeared as guest clinician/lecturer at University of North Carolina at Greensboro New Music Festival, Northwestern University Conducting and Wind Symposium, College Band Directors National Association (CBDNA) National Conference, University of British Columbia Wind Conducting Symposium, and guest artist in residence at Iowa State University.

Dedicated to public school music education, Morris has extensive experience teaching junior and senior high school in Michigan and Colorado. His success has earned both national and international invitations to appear as a guest conductor and clinician for numerous public schools, honor ensembles, and festivals in California, Michigan, Hawai’i, North Carolina, Colorado, Illinois, Iowa, Montana, Virginia, Washington, and Canada. In service to his passion as a conductor and teacher, Morris hosts the Puget Sound Conductors Institute; a bi-annual four-day workshop bringing together public school music teachers to hone conducting technique, deepen pedagogical knowledge, and strengthen professional relationships within the community. In addition, he currently serves as conductor of the Puget Sound Youth Wind Ensemble (PSYWE). With this organization he co-developed the PSYWE
Teachers Workshop; a one-day event designed specifically for K-12 public school music teachers.

Morris's conducting and teaching are informed by years of professional performing experience as principal euphonium with Boulder Brass and United States Marine Corps Band, Hawai‘i. With these organizations he toured the United States, Australia, and Costa Rica as both an ensemble member and soloist.
