NOTES:

The Classics and Ancient Mediterranean Studies department offers two tracks for its major: Classical Languages and Classical Studies. This is the suggested four-year program for a Classical Studies major (See separate curriculum guide for the Classical Languages major). Students considering graduate school in Classics should choose the Classical Languages track rather than the Classical Studies track and consult with a member of the faculty as soon as possible about taking additional units of Greek and Latin.

Three courses in either Greek or Latin are required, but students with appropriate background may begin at a higher level.

Completion of 2 semesters (0.5 units) of CLSC 100 (proseminar) activity credit.

Three additional courses, at least two of which must be numbered 299+, in Greek, or Latin, or the following Classical Civilization courses: ARTH 360, 361; CLSC 101, 120, 130, 180, 181, 210, 211, 212, 230-233, 280/SOAN 280, 320-323, 330, 339, 375; CONN 377; HIST 112, PHIL 361; PHYS 299; PG 340; STS 201.

1) Greek or Latin 301 may be repeated for credit.

2) Of the three units of upper division coursework required outside the first major, the Connections course will count for one unless it is used to meet a major requirement.

3) Senior thesis (CLSC 490). In the semester prior to registration for CLSC 490, students must complete a Thesis Proposal form and submit it for approval to their thesis advisor and the Department Chair. Contact the Department Chair for more information on the thesis/approval process.

4) At least five units in the major must be completed at Puget Sound.
