Submit completed applications to Student Financial Services (Jones 019) by March 31, 2022

Latin American Heritage Student Organization (LAHSO) funds this scholarship to support Puget Sound's Latine-identifying student population. As a student group uniquely organizing around the condition, context, and culture of the Latine community, LAHSO recognizes the impact that being from this community may have on a student's Puget Sound experience.

This scholarship is intended to provide financial support to any student who identifies as Latine, no matter what their citizenship status may be. The scholarship will be awarded to Latine students in good academic standing and who demonstrate impressive leadership. While the exact scholarship amount has yet to be determined, in the past we have awarded two scholarships with an average amount of $1,200 per student.
