SEXUAL ASSAULT EMERGENCY RESPONSE WHILE STUDYING ABROAD

ONSITE CHECKLIST

You are encouraged to take these steps immediately to ensure your safety:

1. Call one of the program emergency phone numbers

(write local emergency numbers here)

and request that a program staff member accompany you to the hospital, clinic, or doctor for support such as

- treatment of injuries
  - testing for STD
  - other response options (such as learning about whether emergency contraception is available, and about the possibility of preserving evidence.)
2. If necessary, request to be moved from your current living quarters to safe housing.
  3. If the alleged perpetrator was from your own program, request action from the program staff that will assure your safety.
  4. After consultation with a program staff member, you may decide to contact the police.

After your immediate concerns have been addressed, you may take the following steps while you are still abroad:

5. Seek assistance or counseling in the host country. Program staff will be able to provide contact information for a center for victims of sexual assault or counseling service.
6. You may contact Pathways to Safety by visiting <https://pathwaystosafety.org>
7. You may also contact any of the individuals at Puget Sound listed on the back of this card to receive support.
