

ANGELA RONCES-CORTES

A young woman with long dark hair and glasses, smiling, is the central focus of the image. She is wearing a green sweater. In the background, there is a large, ornate fountain with water spraying from its top. Behind the fountain is a large, multi-story brick building with many windows and a flag flying on a pole. The scene is set outdoors with green trees and a clear blue sky.

Hello Hi Hello! My name is Angela Ronces-Cortes, I use she/her pronouns. I am from Mount Vernon, Washington, a small town known for its month long tulip festivals. I am majoring in Music with a Latin American studies minor and I am super interested in studying Ethnomusicology. While on campus, you will find me playing my cello in studio class and practice rooms, rehearsing with the UPS Symphony Orchestra, and working in the Community Music Office. When I am not on campus, you can find me around town trying out new foods or visiting the craft store looking for a new crochet project.
