GUEST CONDUCTOR

WILLIAM C. POWELL is a professor of music and the director of choral activities. He conducts the Chamber Choir, Men's Chorus, Concert Choir, and Gospel Choir, and he teaches choral-related courses.

Powell has guest conducted throughout the United States and abroad, including Australia, Italy, and Eastern Europe. He serves as a regular adjudicator for various choral festivals such as Festival Disney. He also gives presentations for the National Association for Music Education, American Choral Directors Association, Intercollegiate Men's Choruses, College Music Society, Hawaii International Conference on Arts and Humanities, and the National Society of Music in Technology.

His choral arrangements are published by Hal Leonard Corporation, Gentry Publications, and Oxford University Press through which he and his wife, Rosephanye Powell, co-edited a collection titled "Spirituals for Upper Voices." He also has a choral series published by Gentry Publications.

An active member of the American Choral Directors Association, Powell has served as the repertoire and standards chair of the Committee on Ethnic and Multicultural Perspectives for the both the southwestern and southern divisions. He also holds memberships with the National Association for Music Education, and the American Society of Composers and Publishers. He and his wife have two daughters, Camille and Kaitlyn.

FESTIVAL FACULTY

STEVEN ZOPFI is director of choral activities and professor of music at the University of Puget Sound where he oversees four choirs, teaches conducting, applied voice, and conducts the award-winning Adelphian Concert Choir. Prior to his appointment at Puget Sound, he served on the faculties of Penn State University, the University of Washington and Pacific Lutheran University. Choirs under his direction have been invited to sing at the local and regional conventions of the American Choral Director's Association, the National Association for Music Education, the Society of Composers, Inc., the Colorado Early Music Society, and other professional organizations.

A native of New Jersey, Zopfi has a Bachelor degree in music education from the Hartt School of Music, a Master of Music degree in conducting from the University of California, Irvine, and Doctor of Musical Arts in choral conducting from the University of Colorado. He taught in the public schools in Vermont and New York, where he also served as Vermont State President of the American Choral Directors Association and an executive board member of the Vermont Music Educators Association. Since coming to the Pacific Northwest in 2001, he continued to remain active in professional organizations serving as Chair of Collegiate Activities for WA ACDA and NW ACDA. He is in constant demand as a conductor, adjudicator, and clinician. In 2015, he was named the Outstanding Choral Conductor of the year by WA ACDA.

Zopfi served as artistic director of the Portland Symphonic Choir from 2003 to 2018, the official chorus of the Oregon Symphony Orchestra. Zopfi led the Oregon Symphony in performances of Mozart's Mass in C Minor, Stravinsky's Symphony of Psalms, and music by Beethoven, Bach, and Wagner. Critics have hailed his work as "magical" and "superb." Zopfi has prepared choruses for Carlos Kalmar, Bernard Labadie, Alastair Willis, Murray Sidlin, Jean Marie Zeitouni, and Peter Schickele. As a singer, he has sung for many leading conductors including Robert Shaw and Sir David Wilcocks. He has performed with the Prague Philharmonic, the Colorado Symphony, the New Jersey Symphony, and the Pazardzhik Symphony and is the founder and past artistic director of the Foundling Hospital Singers, the Boulder Schola Cantorum, the Grace Chamber Orchestra, and The Portland Sinfonietta.

Zopfi is the founder and artistic director of the Tacoma Bach Festival.

ERIN GUINUP '96 is a composer, conductor, and arts consultant whose innovative work spans multiple continents and communities. As the founding Executive and Artistic Director of the Tacoma Refugee Choir, she led singers from 75 countries in performances for more than 50,000 people, including the Governor's State of the State Address, TEDxSeattle, and national conferences for ACDA and Welcoming America.

As a composer, Guinup's works emerge from a deep belief that music should be both accessible and transformative. She is drawn to stories and texts that invite us to see ourselves in others, to acknowledge pain while nurturing hope, and to discover the joy that comes from being truly present with one another. Her compositions have been performed at the ACDA National Conference, on PBS, and by the US Air Force Band of the Golden West and Symphony Tacoma.

Drawing from extensive performance experience, Guinup's diverse background includes the title role in Mary Poppins, and appearances as soprano soloist with Symphony Tacoma, Ensign Symphony & Chorus, Tacoma Concert Band, and Tacoma City Ballet. She has performed in 20 languages throughout her career and her cross-cultural musical collaborations include performing with the Israeli-Palestinian choir Common Ground Voices in Jerusalem and Germany, participating in the Silkroad Ensemble's Global Musicians Workshop, and singing in China on a diplomatic cultural exchange. She also sings lead for a rock band, and her one-woman show, The Ladies of Lyric and Song, celebrating female musical theatre composers, toured internationally.

She has conducted orchestras and choirs including the world premiere performance of Orson Scott Card & Mark Mitchell's He is There and Rob Gardner's Lamb of God. Her voice students have sung on Broadway and operatic stages and she is a frequent adjudicator. As the founder of Arts Resonance—a consulting firm centered on strategic planning, audience development, leadership support, and the art of belonging—she brings an outside-the-box approach to creating transformative musical experiences.

A contributing author to three books and sought-after presenter on vocal technique including Belting 101, Guinup's accolades include the American Academy of Teachers of Singing Award for Inclusion and Inspiration, Chorus America's Louis Botto Award for Innovation and Entrepreneurship, and 253 Lifestyle Magazine's Person of the Year. She holds an MBA in Arts Innovation from the Global Leaders Institute and a Bachelor of Music from the University of Puget Sound.

JINSHIL YI '14 is an avid collaborative pianist in high demand throughout the Tacoma/Seattle area. She has appeared in concerts with Northwest Sinfonietta Artistic Partner David Lockington, soprano Christina Kowalski, mezzo-soprano Dawn Padula, and baritone Ryan Bede. Since 2016, Yi has served as staff accompanist at the University of Puget Sound, working extensively with Steven Zopfi, Kathryn Lehmann, and Ed Hughes on the acclaimed Adelphian Concert Choir, Dorians, and Chorale.

A heartfelt sacred music enthusiast, Yi loves expressing her faith through her work as pianist and organist for two churches in Lakewood, Wash. In addition to being on staff as a pianist for Tacoma Youth Chorus and Charles Wright Academy, she regularly collaborates with other Tacoma schools, choirs, and private music studios for music festivals, competitions, and concerts. Both her solo and collaborative playing have been broadcast on the radio, most recently on 98.1 KING FM following a concert tour of western Washington.

Yi serves as managing director for Second City Chamber Series and is a soprano in the Symphony Tacoma Voices. She holds three undergraduate degrees cum laude from the University of Puget Sound in music, biochemistry, and politics and government with an international relations emphasis.

UNIVERSITY OF PUGET SOUND SCHOOL OF MUSIC

TRACY DOYLE, DIRECTOR

The School of Music at University of Puget Sound, situated within a nationally recognized liberal arts university, prepares students to be broad-minded, creative, arts-aware social leaders. We attract highly engaged student musicians and empower them to create the diverse musical offerings and effective educational programs of the future.

SCHOOL OF MUSIC PERFORMING GROUPS

Adelphian Concert Choir

Founded in 1932, the Adelphian Concert Choir is one of the signature groups of the university and is recognized as one of the Northwest's most acclaimed ensembles. For more than 80 years, this auditioned choir has sustained a level of choral excellence that has brought accolades from audiences in Canada, in Europe, and on the West Coast. It has appeared at the state, regional, and national conventions of both the American Choral Directors Association and the Music Educators National Conference. The Adelphians consistently receive the highest acclaim for standards in repertoire, interpretation, and musicianship.

Voci d'Amici

This a cappella chamber ensemble performs in holiday concerts every December. Its repertoire ranges from the Renaissance to the 21st century.

Puget Sound Singers

Open to the entire campus community, Chorale is a non-auditioned mixed ensemble that meets twice weekly. Through repertoire drawn from a multiplicity of style periods and genres, including world choral music, members establish a musical foundation of vocal technique, music theory, and sight singing.
