DIRECTOR

JEFFERY N. LUND is recognized throughout the Pacific Northwest for his involvement in music education and music performance. Active as an educator, teacher, and performer, he works tirelessly to broaden appreciation for the artistic traditions of western art music in those who might be less familiar with “classical” music. Currently, he teaches percussion-related courses at University of Puget Sound as affiliate artist in percussion, and teaches general music course at Tacoma Community College, where he is an adjunct professor. Along with his teaching and performing, Lund is the music director and conductor of the Rainier Symphony.

Lund holds bachelor and master degrees in percussion performance, and a master’s degree in orchestral conducting. Additionally, he is a Liberace Scholar, a Hubbard Scholar, and an endorsed artist with Marimba One.

LAND ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

We acknowledge that this event takes place on the ancestral territory of the Puyallup Tribe and the Lushootseed-speaking people, whose relationship with the land continues to this day.

The School of Music at University of Puget Sound, situated within a nationally recognized liberal arts university, prepares students to be broad-minded, creative, arts-aware social leaders. We attract highly engaged student musicians and empower them to create the diverse musical offerings and effective educational programs of the future.

From the classroom to the concert hall, we cultivate students' self-expression, cultural competency, and critical engagement. Through a wide variety of public offerings and a vibrant Community Music program, the School of Music enriches the cultural life of both the Puget Sound campus and surrounding communities.

Community Music, a division of the School of Music, welcomes people of all ages and skill levels to participate in music lessons and classes throughout the year. pugetsound.edu/communitymusic | 253.879.3575
