

International Student Verification of Finances

This form is required for international students who wish to apply for admission at University of Puget Sound. The U.S. government requires colleges and universities to confirm that students have, in liquid funds, sufficient resources to pay for the cost of their attendance (minus any scholarships). The total cost of attendance (including indirect costs) is available at www.pugetsound.edu/admission/student-financial-services/tuition-fees.

Liquid funds means money that is readily available for payments (i.e., checking or savings accounts). Investment accounts do not reflect available funds and cannot be accepted.
