PROGRAM

DORIAN SINGERS

Kathryn Lehmann, conductor

Jinshil Yi, piano

Maria, Mater gratiae No. 2, Opus 47 Gabriel Fauré
(1845–1924)

Mary, Gentle Mother of mercy, Protect us from evil.
Glory be unto Thee, With the Father, Forever and ever. Amen

Dixit Dominus Baldassare Galuppi
(1706–1785)

The Lord said unto my Lord: Sit thou on my right hand, until I make thine enemies thy footstool. The Lord shall send the rod of thy power out of Zion: be thou ruler, even in the midst among thine enemies. In the day of thy power shall the people offer thee free-will offerings with a holy worship.

No, Di Voi Non Vo' Fidarmi George Frideric Handel
(1685–1759)

No, oh never will I trust you, oh blind love, oh cruel man!
You are both a liar, a very alluring god, and a very handsome man!

VOCI D'AMICI

Steven Zopfi, director

Cantate Domino Hans Leo Hassler
(1564–1612)

Sing to the Lord a new song, sing to the Lord all the earth. Sing to the Lord and bless his name; proclaim his salvation from day to day. Declare his glory among the nations, his wonders among all people.

I Will Run and Not Grow Weary arr. Bleckner
Lindsay Long, soprano

ADELPHIAN CONCERT CHOIR

Steven Zopfi, conductor

Selig sind die Toten Heinrich Schütz
(1585–1672)

Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from now on. Yea, the spirit speaks: "they rest from their labor, and their works follow after them."

In Time of Pestilence Ned Rorem
Adieu, farewell earth's bliss! b. 1923
Rich men, trust not in wealth,
Haste therefore each degree

Calm on the Listening Ear of Night David Dickau

FESTIVAL FACULTY

KAREN KENNEDY is well known as a choral clinician and adjudicator for all state and festival honor choirs; as well as workshops at ACDA and MENC conventions. She is artistic director of the Master Chorale of South Florida and has previously been chorus director for Honolulu Symphony, director of choral activities at University of Hawai'i at Manoa, and director of choral activities at Towson University. She is currently associate professor, director of choral studies at University of Miami Frost School of Music.

KATHRYN LEHMANN, joined the voice faculty at University of Puget Sound in 2008. She is a graduate of Pacific Lutheran University and has taught public school vocal music at the elementary and secondary levels in the Clover Park and Puyallup school districts in Washington. As a public school educator, she directed performing groups at music educator conventions at the state and regional levels in the Pacific Northwest, gaining a reputation for her expertise in developing the voice in a choral setting. After earning a Master of Music degree in voice performance and pedagogy, Prof. Lehmann taught for three years on the voice faculty at Westminster Choir College in Princeton, New Jersey, where she served as vocal coach for the American Boychoir School and developed a training program for young singers at Westminster Conservatory of Music. During her doctoral studies at University of Colorado in Boulder she studied choral conducting with Joan Catoni Conlon and Lawrence Kaptein. Lehmann came to Washington following 11 years in Oregon, as director of vocal and choral activities at Oregon State University, conducting the OSU Chamber Choir, Madrigal Singers, and Opera Workshop. From 2001–2007 she was the director of choral activities at Pacific Lutheran University.

Hailed as one of the leading young conductors in the Pacific Northwest, STEVEN ZOPFI serves as director of choral activities at University of Puget Sound and is artistic director and conductor of Portland Symphonic Choir, the official chorus of the Oregon Symphony Orchestra. Critics have hailed his work as “magical” and “superb,” and choirs under his direction have been invited to sing at local and regional conventions of American Choral Directors Association, Music Educators National Conference, and other professional organizations. Zopfi has served on the faculties of Penn State University, University of Washington, and Pacific Lutheran University.

Zopfi, a native of New Jersey, attended The Hartt School (music) and University of California, Irvine. He earned a Doctor of Musical Arts degree from University of Colorado. He taught in public schools in Vermont and New York, and he has served as Vermont state president of the American Choral Directors Association, as well as on the executive boards of the Vermont Music Educators Association and Washington Choral Directors Association. Zopfi has prepared choruses for Carlos Kalmar, Bernard Labadie, Alastair Willis, Murray Sidlin, and Peter Schickele, and as a singer has sung for many leading conductors, including Robert Shaw and Sir David Willcocks. He has performed with Prague Philharmonic, Colorado Symphony, and New Jersey Symphony, and is the founder and past artistic director of Foundling Hospital Singers, Boulder Schola Cantorum, Grace Chamber Orchestra, and Portland Sinfonietta.

SCHOOL OF MUSIC VOCAL PERFORMING GROUPS

ADELPHIAN CONCERT CHOIR

Founded in 1932, the 49-voice Adelpian Concert Choir is one of the signature groups of the university and is recognized as one of the Northwest's most acclaimed ensembles. For more than 80 years this auditioned choir has sustained a level of choral excellence that has brought accolades from audiences in Canada, Europe, and on the West Coast. It has appeared at the state, regional, and national conventions of both the American Choral Directors Association and the Music Educators National Conference. Consistently, the Adelpians receive the highest acclaim for standards in repertoire, interpretation, and musicianship. The Adelpian's have been chosen to perform at this year's ACDA Convention in Seattle, Wash.

DORIAN SINGERS

Dorian Singers, conducted by Kathryn Lehmann, is an auditioned, all-female chamber choir of 37 members. Now in its second decade, it is widely recognized throughout the Pacific Northwest as one of the region's leading women's ensembles. Members of Dorian Singers, are strongly committed to learning choral music through a combined understanding of vocal technique, sound production, and ensemble mastery. They represent a wide range of class years and majors at Puget Sound, and are engaged in numerous activities both on and off campus, including serving as hosts of the annual Northwest High School Women's Choral Festival. In 2010 Dorian Singers was featured at the Society of Composers regional conference, and in March 2012, the group made its first appearance at the Northwest American Choral Directors Association convention.

VOCI D'AMICI

This acappella 16-voice ensemble performs in holiday concerts every December. Its repertoire ranges from the Renaissance to the 21st century.
