Four elective units, including two depth and two breadth courses, selected and approved through advising from the courses listed below. At least three of the four must be taken at the upper-division level (courses numbered 300 or higher). See Bulletin for the list of course offerings.

Only courses for which a student has received a C- or better may count for the major or minor.

Students who study abroad may apply two approved elective courses toward their African American Studies major or minor.

Majors and minors may satisfy no more than two university core requirements from African American Studies offerings.

When a course both supports their African American Studies major and fulfills a major or minor requirement in another field, a student may count no more than two units from that major or minor toward their African American Studies major.

The African American Studies Department reserves the option of determining, on an individual basis, a time limit on the applicability of courses to the major.
