In 2013 there were two incidents involving bias and/or hate. In one incident a visitor came to campus was shoved to the ground outside a residence hall. The suspect made anti-homosexual comments during the incident. In the second incident, a student shouted anti-homosexual comments to a group of students from a moving vehicle on the campus border. In 2014 there were three public vandalism cases involving gender and sexual orientation bias messaging. In 2015 one of the forcible rape cases was reported by a trans/queer student who believes his trans identity motivated the crime. In one alcohol violation case a student made anti-homosexual remarks. The Bias-Hate Education Response Team received reports of 3 incidents of public vandalism involving bias/hate messaging.

Offense Definitions

- (a) Rape/Forcible Fondling: Any sexual act directed against another person, forcibly and/or against that person's will; or not forcibly or against the person's will where the victim is incapable of giving consent. Offenses include forcible rape, sodomy, fondling, and sexual assault with an object.
- (b) Incest/Statutory Rape: Unlawful, nonforcible sexual intercourse. Offenses include incest and consensual sexual contact with a minor.
- (d) Non-sexual physical violence within a dating relationship without a domestic component. (Stats for 2011 and 2012 are not available.)
- (e) Creating fear of injury or harm by intentionally and repeatedly harassing or following a person. (Stats for 2011 and 2012 are not available.)
- (f) Physical harm or fear of physical harm between current or past domestic partner/s. (Stats for 2011 and 2012 are not available.)
- (g) Aggravated Assault: An unlawful attack by one person upon another for the purpose of inflicting severe or aggravated bodily injury. This type of assault usually is accompanied by the use of a weapon or by means likely to produce death or great bodily harm. (It is not necessary that injury result from an aggravated assault when a gun, knife, or other weapon are used.)
- (h) Theft: The unlawful taking of unsecured or unattended property of another.
- (i) The term "City Property Adjacent to Campus" refers to sidewalks and streets which immediately border the university campus where the university has no law enforcement authority. These sidewalks and streets are public property and are frequented by members of the campus community. Statistics for these incidents are from the Tacoma Police Department and do not necessarily involve university community members. They are reported to inform persons about nearby, off-campus incidents.
