English Teaching Scholarship to Germany.....Aiyanna Wain Hirschberg
The U.S. student program is designed to give recent B.S./B.A. graduates and master's and doctoral candidates opportunities for personal development and international experience. Students teach English as a second language in high schools and participate in various community and cultural activities. Projects and/or activities may include university coursework, independent library or field research, classes in a music conservatory or art school, special projects in the social or life sciences, or a combination.

French Government Teaching Assistantship ..... Zeinah Kara
Kara Klepinger
Laura Leach
Laura Shearer
Bailey Brady (waitlisted)
Emilie Kurth (waitlisted)

The French Government Teaching Assistantships are competitive and prestigious awards granted by the French Government. Students receiving these Assistantships teach English abroad in the French school system for one academic year.

Thomas Watson Fellowship .....Lisa Tucker
The Watson Fellowship enables college graduates of unusual promise to engage in an initial postgraduate year of independent study and travel abroad. This opportunity provides for a focused and disciplined Wanderjahr of the graduate's own design. The fellowship provides a grant of $30,000 to each recipient.

Critical Language Scholarship ..... Nathan Bradley

A program of the U.S. Department of State, Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs, the Critical Language Scholarship (CLS) Program offers intensive summer language institutes in 13 critical foreign languages. The selection process is administered by American Councils for International Education with awards approved by the U.S. Department of State, Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs. The CLS Program is part of a U.S. government effort to expand dramatically the number of Americans studying and mastering critical foreign languages. Students of diverse disciplines and majors are encouraged to apply. Participants are expected to continue their language study beyond the scholarship period, and later apply their critical language skills in their future professional careers. NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship

NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship ..... Maxwell Mirande

The National Collegiate Athletic Association awards a limited number of scholarships to student-athletes who excel academically and athletically and who are at least in their final year of intercollegiate athletics competition. Across all NCAA Divisions, awards are made to a total of 29 men and 29 women in each sport season (fall, winter, spring) for use in an accredited graduate program.
