NOTES:

Puget Sound requires a total of 32 units to graduate

- 1) Foundations: ENGL 220 and three courses from ENGL 221-249.
- 2) Constructing Knowledge: Four (4) courses from ENGL 321-389. Students must have completed ENGL 220 and at least one other 200-level requirement to register for courses at the 300 level.
- 3) Senior Seminars: Two (2) courses from ENGL 430-497. Students must have completed all 200-level requirements toward the major and a minimum of two courses at the 300 level before registering for a senior experience seminar. Senior Seminars require appropriate preparation and permission of instructor.

Students who complete four courses from among the department's Creative Writing offerings (English 227, 228, 325-328, 434) will receive a B.A. in English with a Focus in Creative Writing noted on their transcripts.

*Of the three units of upper division coursework required outside the first major, the Connections course will count for one unless it is used to meet a major requirement.

NOTES

*Three Foundation courses from ENGL 221-249.

Four Constructing Knowledge courses from ENGL 321-389. Students must have completed English 220 and at least one other 200-level requirement to register for courses at the 300 level.

Senior Seminars: Two courses from ENGL 430-497. Students must have completed all 200-level requirements toward the major and a minimum of two courses at the 300 level before registering for a senior seminar.

Works before 1800: Two of the 10 units taken for the English major must focus primarily on texts written before 1800. Please check the department website for the courses each semester that fulfill this requirement; the department or the Office of the Registrar can also be consulted.

Students must have grade of C- or above in each course applied to the major.

The English Department strongly encourages its majors to obtain speaking and writing competence in a foreign language.

ENGL courses that fulfill the University Core (Artistic Approaches or Humanistic Approaches) cannot be applied towards the major or minor.
