offered Spring 2020

IEP 350 The Political Economy of Gender and Sexuality in China

Professor Yige Dong, Barnett Chair of Contemporary China Studies, will offer a new course for Spring 2020: IPE 350.

While scholarship on the political economy of contemporary China is usually focused on the regime's economic institutions in relation to its political processes, this course invites students to use analytical tools in political economy to examine some understudied yet important issues in the field: family, gender, and sexuality since the beginning of the People's Republic (1949) to the present.

Study Abroad in Japan IES Program Presentation

Wyatt Hall, Room 226

Attend this information meeting to learn about IES study abroad opportunities in Japan.

New Asian Studies Course offered Spring 2020

MUS 321 Music of South Asia

Professor Ameera Nimjee will offer a new course for Spring 2020: MUS 321.

The course explores some of the music traditions that hail from South Asia - a region defined by the countries of India, Pakistan, Sri Lanka, Nepal, Bangladesh, Bhutan, Afghanistan, Maldives, and their diasporas. The course studies music and some of its inextricably linked forms of dance and theater through the lens of ethnomusicology, where music is studied with respect to its complex intersections with culture, daily life, and society.

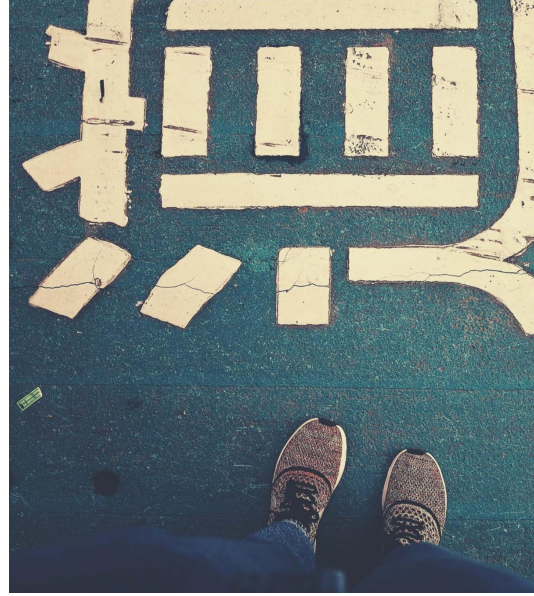

Chinese Innovation Forum Recap

Congratulations to Professor Lotus Perry for hosting a successful Chinese Innovation Forum!

The forum hosted Puget Sound students as well as over 70 Chinese language educators, many of whom were visiting from out of state.

This year's theme focused on Advocacy and Leadership. The keynote speakers, Prof. Jianhua Bai and Mr. Chris Livaccari, lectured on theme-based language teaching in the 21st century and next-generation leadership in K-12 Chinese language education.

Japanese Film Series Part 3: Penguin Highway

November 20, 6:00-8:30pm
Wyatt Hall, Room 201

Aoyama, an intelligent and inquisitive fourth grader, embarks on a journey to discover the reason behind the sudden appearance of penguins in his town. He teams up with a woman from the local dentist's office, after learning she is the source of their mysterious arrival.
