PROGRAM

DORIAN SINGERS

Kathryn Lehmann, conductor

Hyun-Ja Choi, accompanist

Ich Wollt', Meine Lieb' . . . . . Felix Mendelssohn-Bartholdy
(1809–1847)

*I wish my [pain] would flow Into a single word, Which I'd give to the [merry] winds,
Who would carry it merrily along. They would carry it to you, my beloved, The [pain-filled] word; You hear it always, You hear it everywhere. And scarcely have you closed your eyes To night-time slumbers, My [word] will follow you, Into your deepest dream.*

Music When Soft Voices Die . . . . . Jerry Wesley Harris

Danny Boy . . . . . arr. Patterson
Chris Andersen, oboe

VOCI D'AMICI

Steven Zopfi, director

La, la, la, je ne l'ose dire . . . . . Pierre Certon
(1510–1572)

*La, la, la, I shouldn't tell,
Shouldn't tell, shouldn't tell it to you
La la la, I'll tell you anyway
Oh la, la, la, I'll tell you anyway*

In our town there is a man, who
Of his wife burns with jealousy
He's not jealous without cause,
She cuckolds him incessantly
La, la, la...

He's not jealous without cause,
She cuckolds him incessantly
He takes her over to the market
When she's there she makes most free
La, la, la...

Love Lost . . . . . Paul Sjölund
b. 1935

*One Perfect Rose
Careless Talk
Your Little Hands*

Lo, How A Rose/The Rose. . . . . arr. Hella Johnson
Aidan Glaze, tenor

ADELPHIAN CONCERT CHOIR

Steven Zopfi, conductor
Jeff Caldwell, accompanist

Exsultate Justi. . . . . Ludovico da Viadana
(c. 1560–1627)

*Rejoice in the Lord, O ye just; praise befits the upright.
Give praise to the Lord on the harp; sing to him with the psaltery, the instrument of ten strings.
Sing to him a new canticle, sing well unto him with a loud noise.
Rejoice in the Lord, O ye just; praise befits the upright.*

Good Night, Dear Heart. . . . . Dan Forrest
b. 1978

The Bluebird . . . . . Norman Dello Joio
(1913–2008)

Ronda Catonga . . . . . Pablo Trindale Roballo
b. 1961

*The children in all corners dance the Ronda Catonga.
With their hands they make the circle of the big ring.
Makumba, makumbembé, the little black Africans also make the ring with the night in their hands.
We have to throw an arrow and dance the candombe so that the little black devil “mandinga” will run away.
I sing “tiringu tingo” when I see a beautiful black girl passing by.
The stars make a ring when they play with the sun and in the candombe of the sky the moon is the biggest drum.
Dance to the wheel, to the wheel, the little white devil, the blacks dance.*

PUGET SOUND NORTHWEST HIGH SCHOOL HONOR CHOIR 2016

Eugene Rogers, guest conductor
Jeff Caldwell, accompanist

Gloria in excelsis from Heiligmesse. . . . . Franz Joseph Haydn
(1732–1809)

*Glory to God in the highest, and, peace to his people on earth.
Lord God, heavenly King, almighty God and Father,
we worship you, we give you thanks, we praise you for your glory.*

*Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father, Lord God, Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world: have mercy on us;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father: receive our prayer.*

*For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father. Amen.*

Fair Phyllis I Saw Sitting All Alone . . . . . John Farmer
(c. 1570–1601)

Carrickfergus . . . . . arr. Caldwell and Ivory
Katie Grainger, oboe

Ni jina gani . . . . . Israel Kagaruki
arr. Rogers
Spencer Moore, Michael Stahl, percussion

Shenandoah. . . . . arr. Dilworth
Colin Babcock, flute
Zack Zydek, acoustic guitar

Old Dan Tucker. . . . . arr. Leavitt
Sage Genna, violin
Zack Zydek, bass

FESTIVAL FACULTY

Recognized as a leading conductor, pedagogue, and lecturer, EUGENE ROGERS has appeared throughout the U.S. as well as in Africa, Canada, China, Singapore, England, Portugal, Hong Kong, Luxembourg, Mexico, Spain, and Italy. Dr. Rogers is associate director of choirs at University of Michigan where he teaches undergraduate conducting, conducts the Men's Glee Club and University Choir, and is the faculty director of the MPulse Vocal Arts Institute, a national high school summer program. His past appointments include Macalester College (St. Paul, Minnesota), Boys Choir of Harlem, Waubonsie Valley High School (Aurora, Illinois), and Anima Young Singers of Greater Chicago (formerly the Glen Ellyn Children's Choir). In 2013, Dr. Rogers co-managed the production of the joint CD Ye Shall Have a Song with the Michigan, Yale, and Harvard glee clubs, a collaboration celebrating America's three oldest collegiate choirs.

Dr. Rogers notable guest appearances in 2016-17 include guest conducting and conference presentations in British Columbia, China, Madrid, Portugal, Singapore, California, Georgia, Minnesota, Ohio, Oregon, South Carolina, Texas, Virginia, Washington, and Michigan.

In 2015, Mark Foster Publishing began the Eugene Rogers Choral Series, a series featuring emerging composers who specialize in contemporary classical and folk music traditions. In 2011, Dr. Rogers traveled to and studied the choral traditions of East Africa (Tanzania) and subsequently published editions of Tanzanian choral music under the Hal Leonard World Music Series. As a singer, Dr. Rogers has performed with World Youth Choir, Portland Symphonic Choir, Saint Paul Chamber Orchestra Chorale, and May Festival Chorus in Cincinnati, Ohio.

In addition to his duties as a conductor, teacher, and singer, Dr. Rogers is the first national chair of diversity issues for the American Choral Directors Association National Conference, co-artistic director of Portugal's Lisbon Summer Choral Festival and, in 2010 and 2011, was the artistic director of the Disneyland Hong Kong Winter

Choral Festival. He has served as a panelist for National Endowment of the Arts and currently serves on the boards of Central Division American Choral Directors Association (Male Chorus R&S Chair), National Collegiate Choral Organization, and is the ChoralQuest series editor for the American Composers Forum.

Dr. Rogers holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in choral music education from University of Illinois, Urbana Champaign, and a Master of Music and Doctor of Musical Arts degrees in choral conducting from University of Michigan.

KATHRYN LEHMANN joined the voice faculty at University of Puget Sound in 2008. She is a graduate of Pacific Lutheran University and has taught public school vocal music at the elementary and secondary levels in the Clover Park and Puyallup school districts in Washington. As a public school educator, she directed performing groups at music educator conventions at the state and regional levels in the Pacific Northwest, gaining a reputation for her expertise in developing the voice in a choral setting. After earning a Master of Music degree in voice performance and pedagogy, Ms. Lehmann taught for three years on the voice faculty at Westminster Choir College in Princeton, New Jersey, where she served as vocal coach for the American Boychoir School and developed a training program for young singers at Westminster Conservatory of Music. During her doctoral studies at University of Colorado in Boulder she studied choral conducting with Joan Catoni Conlon and Lawrence Kaptein. Ms. Lehmann came to Washington following 11 years in Oregon, as director of vocal and choral activities at Oregon State University, conducting the OSU Chamber Choir, Madrigal Singers, and Opera Workshop. From 2001–2007 she was the director of choral activities at Pacific Lutheran University. PLU's Choir of the West performed at the National ACDA Convention in Los Angeles under Ms. Lehmann's direction.

STEVEN ZOPFI, one of the leading young conductors in the Pacific Northwest, joined the Puget Sound faculty in fall 2008, as director of choral activities and conductor of the Adelpian Concert Choir. A native of New Jersey, Dr. Zopfi has a bachelor's degree in music education from Hartt School of Music, a Master of Music degree in conducting from University of California, Irvine, and a Doctor of Musical Arts degree in choral conducting from University of Colorado. He taught in the public schools of New York and Vermont, where he also served as state president of the American Choral Directors Association and an executive board member of Vermont Music Educators Association. Since coming to the Pacific Northwest in 2001, he has continued to remain active in professional organizations and served as chair of collegiate activities for the Northwest Chapter of the American Choral Directors Association from 2008 to 2014. He was recently awarded the Outstanding Choral Director Award for 2018 by Wash. ACDA.

Dr. Zopfi is in constant demand as a conductor, adjudicator, and clinician. He has prepared choruses for Carlos Kalmar, Bernard Labadie, Jean Marie Zeitouni, Murray Sidlin, and Peter Schickele. As a singer he has performed for many leading conductors, including Robert Shaw and Sir David Wilcocks. He has performed with the Prague Philharmonic, Colorado Symphony, and New Jersey Symphony, and is the founder and past artistic director of Foundling Hospital Singers, Boulder Schola Cantorum, Grace Chamber Orchestra, and Portland Sinfonietta. He currently serves as artistic director and conductor of Portland Symphonic Choir, the official chorus of the Oregon Symphony Orchestra. Critics have hailed his work as “magical” and “superb” and choirs under his direction have been invited to sing at local and regional conventions of the American Choral Directors Association, National Association for Music Education, and other professional organizations. Dr. Zopfi has been invited to guest conduct the Oregon Symphony, and his recordings have been featured on NPR and American Public Radio.

Dr. Zopfi’s scholarly interests include late-20th-century American motet composition and the instrumentation of the basso continuo of early 17th-century vocal music. Active as an editor of early music, he is also a passionate advocate for new music, and has commissioned and conducted the world premieres of music by Edwin Lawrence, Timothy Melbinger, Bryan Johanson, and Judith Zaimont. His music reviews and articles have been published in The Choral Journal and his arrangements and editions are published by Colla Voce publishing.

SCHOOL OF MUSIC VOCAL PERFORMING GROUPS

ADELPHIAN CONCERT CHOIR

Founded in 1932, the Adelpian Concert Choir is one of the signature groups of the university and is recognized as one of the Northwest’s most acclaimed ensembles. For more than 80 years this auditioned choir has sustained a level of choral excellence that has brought accolades from audiences in Canada, Europe, and on the West Coast. It has appeared at the state, regional, and national conventions of both the American Choral Directors Association and the Music Educators National Conference. Consistently, the Adelpians receive the highest acclaim for standards in repertoire, interpretation, and musicianship.

DORIAN SINGERS

Dorian Singers, conducted by Kathryn Lehmann, is an auditioned, all-female chamber choir of 32 members. Now in its second decade, it is widely recognized throughout the Pacific Northwest as one of the region’s leading women’s ensembles. Members of Dorian Singers are strongly committed to learning choral music through a combined understanding of vocal technique, sound production, and ensemble mastery. They represent a wide range of class years and majors at Puget Sound, and are engaged in numerous activities both on and off campus, including serving as hosts of the annual Northwest High School Women’s Choral Festival. In 2010

Dorian Singers was featured at the Society of Composers regional conference, and in March 2012, the group made its first appearance at the Northwest American Choral Directors Association convention.

VOCI D'AMICI

This acappella 16-voice ensemble performs in holiday concerts every December. Its repertoire ranges from the Renaissance to the 21st century.

CHORALE

Open to the entire campus community, Chorale is a non-auditioned mixed ensemble that meets twice weekly. Through repertoire drawn from a multiplicity of style periods and genres, including world choral music, members establish a musical foundation of vocal technique, music theory, and sight singing.
