

A MESSAGE FROM THE DIRECTOR OF THE SCHOOL OF MUSIC

As director of the School of Music at University of Puget Sound, I am delighted to welcome you to this concert by the Adelphian Concert Choir. Music has helped define the uniqueness and distinction of Puget Sound since 1893, and the Adelphians have been central to bringing recognition and renown to our program. Founded in 1932 the choir is one of the longest standing and most beloved organizations in the history of the university. For more than 80 years, it has given exceptional performances throughout the Pacific Northwest. It is one of the foundations of a music program that offers multiple degrees in music, a music minor, open ensemble auditions for all university students, and lessons by specialists on all standard instruments and voices. To learn more about us, talk with our students, quiz Dr. Zopfi, visit us on the Web at pugetsound.edu/music, or come to our Tacoma campus for a tour!

It is both a pleasure and an honor to perform for you. Welcome and enjoy.

Keith Ward
Director, School of Music

THE SCHOOL OF MUSIC

The School of Music at University of Puget Sound is unique in offering a comprehensive music program within a nationally recognized liberal arts college. Its accomplished faculty is committed to guiding students toward outstanding achievements in performance, scholarship, and teaching. The rigorous curriculum and extensive performance opportunities prepare students for a diverse range of careers and provide all students opportunities to pursue music study. Through a wide variety of colloquia, workshops, performances, and a vibrant Community Music Department, the School of Music enriches the cultural life of both the Puget Sound campus and the surrounding community.

UNIVERSITY OF PUGET SOUND

University of Puget Sound is a highly selective liberal arts college in the Pacific Northwest. It's a place where people come together—to learn, to make lasting connections, to plunge into a sea of ideas, and to begin to scale the challenges of the world ahead. Puget Sound is an intellectual atmosphere, an energized academic community, a beautiful campus in a vibrant city, and offers a depth of opportunities to reach out, connect, and explore.

ADELPHIAN CONCERT CHOIR

Adelphian Concert Choir, founded in 1932, is one of four choral organizations in the School of Music at University of Puget Sound. Members of the choir are all undergraduate students selected through audition. Approximately half are music majors. The Adelphians have appeared by invitation at the state, regional, and national conventions of both American Choral Director's Association and Music Educator's National Conference, and consistently receive the highest acclaim for their repertoire, interpretation, and musicianship. In addition to their numerous convention appearances, they have appeared as guest artists with Northwest Sinfonietta, Tacoma Symphony Orchestra, Tacoma Concert Band, and Tacoma City Ballet, Inc. They have presented several Pacific Northwest and United States premiere performances of contemporary choral works by composers from Canada, Germany, and the United States.

STEVEN ZOPFI, CONDUCTOR

Steven Zopfi serves as director of choral activities at University of Puget Sound and is artistic director and conductor of Portland Symphonic Choir, the official chorus of the Oregon Symphony Orchestra. He has served on the faculties of Penn State University, University of Washington, and Pacific Lutheran University. Zopfi attended The Hartt School (music) and University of California, Irvine, and earned a Doctor of Musical Arts degree from University of Colorado. He is in constant demand as a conductor, adjudicator, and clinician.
